ARRIVAL OF THE SHUBRICK.

Five Days Later from the Seat of War. RUMOR OF A GREAT REBEL VICTORY AT PERRYSVILLE, KY.

Through the kindness of Capt. Pease, commander of the U. S. revenue cutter Shubrick, we are in possession of Eastern dates up to the 23d ult., being five days later than our last advices.

The Shubrick brings a rumor which reached Olympia just before she left, to the effect that a great battle had been fought near Perrysville, Kentucky, the federals being totally defeated with a loss of 20,000 men. The rebel loss is stated at 5.000.

Among the passengers that arrived at San Francisco from the East by the steamship Orizaba, is Mr. Thomas Brown, a Special Agent of the United States Treasury Department. who has been sent to investigate matters in the Customs and other Departments on the Pacific coast. It is probable that he will visit Washington Territory and see about the Victor Smith-Merryman affair.

tor Smith-Merryman analy.

The Star says circumstances induce the general impression among military men that the rebels in front of McClellan will soon fight. He has evidently crowded them, and they evince no disposition to retreat. One reason why they should fight is that McClellan by moving upon the are of a circle through some near part of the blue ridge may get before Richmond as soon, if not sooner, than the rebels can march down the valley to Stanton.

than the rebels can march down the valley to Staunton.

Buell is reported just south of Mount Vernon in close pursuit of the rebels, who are supposed to be aming to cross into Tennessee by Big Greek, at Wilson's Gap. It is hoped and believed that Buell will force the rebels to fight before they reach Cumberland Gap.

It is stated that the fight at Perryville was brought on on against the orders of Buell, whose plans for enveloping the whole of Bragg's army are thereby thwarted, and the pursuit of the rebels delayed by that circumstance.

PARIS, K., October 19.—After capturing our pickets, John Morgan dashed into Lexington yesterday morning with 1,500 men. Before surrendering, our men fought gallantly, killing and wounding several. Our loss was 6 killed; 120 infantry were taken prisoners. The balance of orforce, 260 cavalry, made their escape. To-day he left, and when between Versailles and Frankfort, he was met by 2,500 of Dumoni's cavalry. After a short fight, the enemy fled in the direction of Lawrenceburg. Our cavalry pursued—with what result is not yet known.

Humphrey Marshall is now at or near Sharpsburg.

Lexington is again in possession of our troops.

5,050 majority. Oct. 19.—Fifteen Union Congressmen are elected. The State ticket is still doubtful, but the chances favor the Democrats. The House will probably stand 46 Union to 52 Democrats, and the Senate 29 Union to 18 Democrats.

New York, 21.—The Herald's Washington special correspondent says the pressure for a forward movement is becoming about general, and it is urged with an earnestness that has never been equalled. The argument is used that protraction of the present inaction will ruin the country.

The Times has a dispatch, giving an account from a refugee who brought a report from Culpopper county, Va., that a slave insurrection is anticipated, and says the inhabitants of the counties wherein insubordination exists, threaten to resist the consertiption act; they acting on plea of self protection, and say it is necessary to defend themselves against the negroes.

The Petersburg Express of the 15th fears much terrible and severe suffering from scarcity of coal at Richmond.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 16th says: We infer that the Federals will soon make a desperate effort to force their iron-clad vessels up James River, past Drury's Bluffs. Its account of the Perrysville ight says it is one Kentucky will mourn for years. It also claims a victory at Perrysville, and says the Federals lost 20,000 in killed and wounded, while the Confederate loss was about 5,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—A dispatch from Cincinnati says, advices from Gen. Cox at Gallipolis, Ohio, report that the rebels have evacuated Western Virginia and gone to Eastern Tennessee, taking with them all their trains. They have manufactured 200,000 bags of salt in Kanawha Valley, and have destroyed all the salt works and other property.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 23.—Humphrey Marshall's forces are retreating from Mount Vernon towards Tennessee. His force numbers about 3000.

PHILABELPHIA, Oct. 23.—A person captured at the first battle of Bull Run has just arrived from Richmond, and says the Merrimae No. 2 is nearly ready for service. She has iron plates placed on her, and appears like an ugly customer. She is similar in construction to the old Merrimae, though not so large, and more easily managed.

New York, Oct. 21st.—The Tribinae editorially says the last European advices render it morally certain that France and England will recognize the Southern Confederacy on the 1st of January, provided there be no change in the situation before that time. It also says there will soon be a battle near Winchester, and urges sending every available man to reinforce McClellan.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—A Cincinnati special says it is quite certain that Bragg has evaded Buell, and with all his forces passed safely through the gaps of the Cumberland mountains into Tennessee. Buell is said to be moving in such a direction as to support our forces at Nashville, and aid preparation in the vicinity of Corinth.

Louisville, Oct. 22.—John Morgan, after destroying a train on Cox Greek, he collected his forces, 1,600 strong, and passed down in the direction of Elizabethown, crossing the Lebanon branch road at Bosten on Monday afternoon. He arrived at Elizabethown the same night and destroyed the bridges over Valley Creek. He also announces his determination to go to Mumfords ville.

Catico, Oct. 21.—It is reported that Island No.
10 was attacked and captured by the rebels. We have not been able, however, to trace this report to any reliable source. The steamer from Commerce, Mo., reports all quiet there.

Louisville, Oct. 22.—Nows is very scarce. A report has reached here which is considered reliable, that the robel Gen. Van Dorn was killed by one of Pree's staff officers. It appears that the two generals had some difficulty, when Van Dorn drew a pistol, but before he could fire he was shot as above mentioned.

drew a pistol, but before he could fire he was shot as above mentioned.

The train which Morgan destroyed near Bardstiwn last Monday, numbered 152 wagons. The errespondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says the rebels plundered trains to the number of 400 heavily loaded wagons, several thousand beef eattle, 1000 mules, and 2,000 sheep, a greater part of which was taken in Kontheep, a greater part of which was taken in Kontheep, a greater part of Vernou, Ky., Gen. He believed that more than that number have deserted since the invasion of the State.

Richmond papers of the 18th, received at Fortress Monroe, contain but little news. A dispatch from Tupelo, Miss., 17th, says seven hundred rebles had arrived at like. The whole number of wounded at the battles of Corinth and Hatchie was 1,500. The rebel army in that vicinity is reported in high spirits. Gold is selling in Richmond at 160½ [70. Washington, Oct. 23.—A reconnoisance from the army of the Potomae to Hedgeville, seven miles northwest of Martinsburg, was made yesterday, by two squadrons of Pennsylvanin cavalry.
Our force drave in the roled pickets, and then charged the body of rebels; they took 19 prisoners, including two officers. Our loss nothing.

The rebels left Martinsburg on Tuesday. It is believed that a portion of them went to Williamsport, and a part to Shepardsown.

It is reported that Gens. Van Dorn and Lovell

Washington, Oct. 23.—The Intelligencer publishes a long paper prepared by General Scott, dated March 30, 1801, describing the course he pursued in the early stages of rebellion, and the difficulties to contend with during Buchanan's administration. The paper throws a flood of light on the history of the rebellion in its incipient stages. It establishes the patriotic anxiety and wise watchfulness of the General-in-Chief to prepare for the coming storm, and his earnest repea ed efforts to prevail on government to maach on and secure Southern forts against attack. The causes of this failure, which is now evident resulted from the indecision of the executive, if not the members of the Cabinet in whom the President reposed misplaced and abused confidence. The London Times says that Lincoln's Emancipation proclamation is a political concession to the abolition wing of the Republican party. It denies the constitutional right of the President or Congress to abolish slavery, and adds that emancipation is a thunderbolt which the President has assumed the right to launch without the power to enforce it. The North must conquer every square mile of the South before it can make the proclamation of any more effect than waste paper.

News. The most important news is that a battle is imminent near Winchester. The next item, that a cabinet meeting had resolved to remove McClellan, and substitute Hooker as his successor. But the greatest piece of news is the battle of Perrysville, Ky., in which the Federals lost 20,000 in killed, wounded, and prisoners; whilst the Confederates lost only 5000. This was evidently a great Confederate victory. Previous intelligence made it a Federal success. Particulars of the battle of Perrysville are not given. What relation the belligerent forces bear to very gloomy for the North. It is the end of winter campaign that will tell the tale. One thing is certain, both sides are learning to slaughter each other in professional style. Fights and nobody killed is not quite so much the order of the day as formerly.

Proposed New Sunday Law. The Legislative Council have sent down a Bill to the Assembly prohibiting Sunday trading. In the main it is nothing more than the application of an English statute passed in the reign of Charles II. to this colony. It may seem like legislating for religion or partionable to many who dissent from those who hold to the observance of the day we now set apart. But as most men are agreed as to the necessity of observing some one day as a day of rest, and as the great majority of the civilized world are agreed in fixing upon one particular day for that purpose, it is perhaps only just and proper that the Legislature should give that observance some kind of legal sanction, and place all upon an equal footing as to refraining from their ordinary avocations on the day so set apart. Some deference should be paid to the views of a great majority on a subject founded on principles acknowledged by all. It will not do for individuals, no matter how anxious they may be to follow the bent of their own opinions and to put them in practice—to try to carry out their views so as to give good cause of offence to their fellow citizens. If the law-making power decides that Sunday is to be the day to be set apart. to give good cause of offence to their fellow citizens. If the law-making power decides that Sunday is to be the day to be set apart for rest and relaxation from all the cares and labors of the week, it is only fair that its observance should be compulsory. What all are obliged to do, individuals are not likely to grumble at.

We must beware, however, of erring too much on the side of Godliness. In our anxiety to have Sunday properly kept it will not do to lose or to be deprived of those conveniences and necessaries which are obtainable the remainder of the week. We are so much the creatures of habit that we cannot afford to have them rudely broken in upon. In our desire to give the body rest it will not do to deprive it of nourishment; food for the soul will not fill an empty stemach. Our fat Senator Dr. Trimble for instance, might not relish some fine Monday morning in the sultry month of July, to find that his butcher had not brought his beefconveniences and necessaries which are ob that his butcher had not brought his beefsteak for breakfast, nor his baker his bread; that both had so strictly observed the law that nothing was done until late on Monday, and so on with other necessities of modern times. It would not do, (to take another illustration) for people to find no newspaper on their tables between Saturday and Tuesday. This is a requirement of our day and one which the intellectual, news-devouring age will not submit to be deprived of. The legislative Council, it would seem, are a little more strait-laced in their notions of Sunday observances than our ancestors were Sunday observances man on-some 200 years ago.

Under the regime of Charles II, it was thought that five shillings fine was a sof-ficient punishment for the breach of the Sunday law; this, too, when the puritanical element was still pretty strong. Under the rule of James Douglas, however, a penalty of five pounds is not thought too much of a caution to teach men to be holy; but so the world wags. Some things are learnt by one generation and unlearnt by another. In the English Act prosecution is required to be brought within ten days. As we are to have the act, it perhaps would be as well to have some such clause as that inserted in it—it will prevent the perpetuation of individual will prevent the perpetuation of individual spite. On the whole the law may be a very spite. On the whole the law may be a very good one in principle; it would, however, we think, be better it the exceptions to the prohibition were a little more extensive, and the punishment somewhat mitigated. A great deal of care is required in the framing of laws on such delicate subjects, in order to steer clear alike of laxity and of infringements upon the necessary privileges of the community.

Steam Navigation of the Upper Fraser. The Cariboo packers entertain the idea that the projected navigation of the Upper Fraser will not be of such consequence to freight for Cariboo at the mouth of Quesnelle. Above that point it is said no advantage can be gained by the Cariboo packer from river navigation. The distance to be navigated being only forty miles is considered too short to be of much help. A project has consequently been started to blast out the rocks in the river below Alexandria and the mouth of San Jose Creek, so as to enable the steamer to descend the river as low down as the latter, This creek takes its rise on Williams' Creek and falls into the Fraser, four miles from the waggon-road, or Davidson's old ranch—the Mission—now kept by Mansfield, Woodward & Co. If the project of blasting be successful, some twenty odd miles will be added to the navigation of, the Upper Fraser; and thus make Williams Lake or the mouth of San Jose Creek the great distributing point for all merchandise carried over the Yale-Lytton and Douglas-Lillooet routes, destined for Cariboo. Sixty or seventy miles of steamboat navigation on the Upper Praser would prove of immense advantage. The project has assumed such a practical shape, that Mansfield, Woodward & Co. have subscribed $2,000, and Pinchback & Co., the next farm and inn, have paid in $500. Government bave been or will be asked to render pecuniary assistance. Capt. Wright also intends to put more powerful engines into his new boat if the project succeeds, so as to overcome the current. If the project of starting at San Jose Creek should prove a failure, steamboating on the Upper Fraser does not at present offer very remunerative prospects, though the

THE BRITISH COLONIST future of steamboating in that hyperborean regions look bright. Should there be a rush to Peace River, as there will be in all proba bility, next spring, steamboats on the Upper Fraser would do well; as it is said that they can leave Mud Lake and with very little difficulty ascend the Fraser to Fort George, and thence up Stuart's River to Fort James, where the miners start from for Peace River. The present year has added much to our stock of geographical knowledge; but the coming one neatly executed. Terms, cash on delivery of the aided by a gold excitement on Peace River, will relate new and surprising discoveries. Three years ago it was not dreamed that a steamboat would ever puff, blow, and struggle in ascending the Upper Fraser, but this is all but a thing done. Steam navigation on the Upper Fraser, up to Fort James-to Tete Jaune Cache-may be regarded as a certainty. It will take time, but that is not far distant, There may be portages, but that will not prevent steam enterprises in the North.

Cariboo Trails and Cheap Provisions Next Year

The people in British Columbia never were pleased with the progress made in the construction of trails or roads. The reflecting each other is not disclosed. Matters look portion of the Cariboo people are not satisfied now, notwithstanding the great efforts made this year to open trunk roads connecting both Douglas and Yale with Cariboo. People never will be satisfied. We never want them to be so. If they were, it would be Sunday every day. We would be a poor, moping, drowsy lot of mortals, without the spice of life. A grievance is a great institution to keep the pot boiling. But the people of Collections of Kitchen Garden Seeds, &c Cariboo seem to have a genuine one. The not 12t's way they put their case, there is a plausibility | To Land Owners and Agriculturists. about it that is convincing rather than otherwise. They say that a great mistake has been made by Government in not making greater ticular phases of religion, to pass an act of improvements this year on the trails through that description, and therefore may be object Caribeo. It is held that the price of provisions will not be reduced perceptibly next year, notwithstanding the completion or opening of Wright's toll-road from Lillocet to necessity of observing some one day as a day of Williams' Lake. In the next place, it is alleged that if horse or mule waggons are put on this road they will have to be fed on grain at a very high rate, so high indeed as to preclude the possibility of a reduction in the rate of freight. Again, if ox-waggons are put on the route- and feed on grass or browse-being slow-footed and taking a longer time to feed, they cannot make more than two trips in season. So nothing but excessive competition could reduce freight by ox-waggons; and that is not expected. Besides, ox-trains could not get up to Williams' Lake very early in the season. Admitting that pack trains be drawn off the route below William's Lake, there seems to be a conviction that the rate of freight next spring will be no lower than the

The impression obtains that it will be '64 before the wagon road will be the means of lowering freights; and that will be chiefly or entirely due to the exertion made to grow enough hay and barley along the road for consumption, without having to resort to importation for a supply. Assuming then that the rate of freight on merchandise when delivered at the main depot at Williams Lake will not be sensibly diminished next year, it appears hopeless to expect a reducion in freight between Williams Lake and Cariboo. The trails between these points are in such a wretched condition, that packers will be unable to reduce freight. They will be in the same condition next spring that they were last, and of that let us give an illustration: A pack-train started from the Forks of Quesnelle for Antler Creek, a distance of forty-cight miles, but was twelve days in getting through-that is, it made four miles a day on the average. Such was a matter of common occurrence; and moreover the bulk of the freight went via the Forks of Quesnelle in the season just closed rather than from Williams Lake via Alexandria and the mouth of the Quesnelle But the delay in packing was not merely time wasted, but it added excessively to the cost of transportation. Twenty-five cents a pound were paid for freight on this forty-eight miles-at the very least twenty cents per pound too much, provided the trails were in better or proper condition.

In California, where a great deal of moun tain packing is done, freight would be trans ported such a distance for two or three cents per pound, and in Cariboo at the outside, it ought not to be more than five cents. There being no prospect of improved trails, the miner will have to pay on this part of the route $400 a ton more on what he consumes than what he ought to pay. The Government is consequently censured for its failure to bestow attention on the Cariboo trails. The Government is responsible for perpetuating the evil of high freights, when proper attention during the past season might have changed the rate of packing very materially. They the upper country as was at one time antici- who calculated on a sensible reduction on the pated. If Wright's new steamer be put on freight destined for Cariboo, seem now to rely at Mud Lake, she will have to land her on the Coast Routes. But they are problemsboth Bute Inlet and Bentinck Arm-not vet catisfactorily solved. Our impression is that both routes will prove successful, before the middle of next summer. But even in that case, the rate of freight will not be very sen-

Folice Court.

Joseph C. Jones, a young man who assumed a saney, haif-defiant air, appeared to answer the charge of being a suspicious character, preferred against him by officer Douglas, who had arrested him. The officer stated that he had seen the prisoner and a companion go to a house on Douglas street, at 11 o'clock on a house on Douglas street, at 11 o'clock on Sunday night, and knocking at the door, enquire for a person who they well knew d'd not live there, and the inmates were annoyed by their coming. Complaints had been made of this sort of thing before. He went to them and enquired what they did there, but the prisoner, instead of replying, only proved abusive, upon which he took him into custedy, and entered the above charge against him.

The Superintendent of Police said that the offence imputed to the prisoner had been one offence imputed to the prisoner had been one constantly practised during the past few weeks at houses where none of the sterner sex were dwelling. Several ladies who had been annoyed in this manner had lodged complaints, and invoked the protection of the police. One dark night lately, on approaching a house during the night where two ladies dwelt, he had observed three men run from the back premises, but was unable to effect a capture.

The prisoner, when interrogated by the magistrate, replied that he had arrived from England on the Tynemouth—had obtained no employment—and was going to leave by the next steamer. He said he had nothing to show what he had been before he left the old country. He had found this country a sell, like a good many more. He had been quite surprised at being taken up so very quick.

Mr. Pemberton warned him that he was under a serious charge, and remanded him for one day to allow him an opportunity of obtaining evidence as to character.

An Indian was charged by Mr. Gerritsen, a baker, with stealing some money and silwer bracelets.

In reply to Mr. Pemberton, who asked of what tribe the prisoner was, Segt. Blake replied that he was a slave, and belonged to the Hydah's. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge, but said that complainant's squaw had first made him drunk and then given him the

The magistrate said he had some compunction in convicting the Indian, as there was scarce any evidence but his (the prisoner's) own. He sentenced him to two month's hard labor. Gerristen, thinking all was right, coolly began pocketing the money, but was stopped by the question being asked as to his being able to identify the coin. Gerristen said he could not; but the prisoner, with singular ingenuousness, assured Itis Worship that the money was the complain-nt's.

A man named C. Raymond, was charged by his Indian wife with assault. Mr. Dennes appeared for the prisoner.

The witness said that the prisoner had two days previous taken off her wedding ring and agreed to part with her—she being disgusted at his drunkenness and ill-treatment of her. She was going to see the Governor to obtain his advice, when the prisoner threw her down and tore her shawl. The tearing of the shawl was admitted.

Mr. Pemberton found the prisoner guilty, and sentenced him to a fine of 50s; and if he abused her again, she might apply to him for protection under the new Marriage

HEAVY BLASTING ON THE NEW WAGON ROAD .- Mr. Trutch, contractor on the Yale-Lytton road, is making preparations for the removel of the high cliff overhanging the Fraser, immediately opposite Nicaragua Slide, it being one of the most serious obstacles on the whole route. The cliff consists of an im mense mass of rock several hundred feet in height, rising abruptly from the water, and jutting out from the side of the mountain behind, from which it is partially separated, near the top, by a slight ravine or dip. The present mule trail passes along this ravine, the projected course of the wagon road being along the base of the cliff, just above high-water mark. The object of the undertaking is to detach the cliff from the rest of the mountain, and harl it into the river, thus leaving a ledge along which the track may be carried. For this purpose a series of galleries will be driven horizontally into the rock just above high norramany mark, converging to a common centre, from which chambers will radiate in different directions. A row of holes parallel to the course of the road will then be drilled down from the ravine at the back of the cliff control of the course of the road will be be drilled down from the ravine at the back of the cliff control of the cliff con from the ravine at the back of the clift connecting with, the chambers below. The mine will be charged with the enormous quantity of 3600 pounds of powder. The effect of the explosion, if successful, will doubtless be very grand. As is usually the case with similar operations, there will probably not be a noisy burst-like an ordinary blast, but with a dull release rear shaking the granual like an overhburst like an ordinary blast, but with a duff solenn roar, shaking the ground like an earth-quake, the immense mass weighing thousands upon thousands of tons, will be precipitated into the bed of the river. The preparations for the undertaking will not be completed till spring, when it is expected that a great many people will avail themselves of the opportunity to witness so rare a spectacle.

the pleasure, the other day, of witnessing the casting of two massive bars of gold in the Assay office of Messis. Cording & Co, in this city. The process is very simple, consisting in melting the gold in a crucible by the heat of a furnace, and then pouring it into an iron mould; oil is then sprinkled on the surface of the molten mass, and taking fire from the heat prevents the access of air to the metal, which would otherwise cause the surface of the bar to assume a blistered appearance. The bars are about nine inches long, three inches wide and one and a half thick, and were valued at upwards of $12,000. Messrs. C. & Co. have assayed about $15,000 per day for the last

A CARIBOO INCIDENT .- A gentleman who has just returned from the mines tells us, that being struck with the slight appearance of a man who had undertaken to pack a keg of butter, weighing 132 lbs. from Antler to Williams Creek for a miner, he asked him to put himself in the scales, whereupon he found that the man weighed 135 lbs—only three pounds more than his load. The contract was, however, fulfilled and the keg conveyed the full distance, which is twelve miles.

AUCTION SALE OF REAL ESTATE,-The sale held by Mr. Copland yesterday was well attended, and the bidding spirited. The following lots were knocked down at the prices attached :- Corner lot No. 1933, James Bay. $260: 10 acres at Portage Inlet, $700; 21 acres, part of suburban lot No. 7, $2000; 10 acres, part of suburban lot No. 7, $2000; lot 1291, James Bay, $255; lot 30, Esquimalt, $116; lot 24, Esquimalt, $105; lots 35 and 36, Esquimalt, $210; lot 180, Johnson street, hought in at $5500.

AN OLD OFFENDER .- Jacob Fisher, the man convicted of selling whiskey to an Indian, in the Police Court last Thursday, was one of the Police Court list Thirsday, was one of the crew of a small schooner loaded with tan-gle-leg seized by the police in the vicinity of the Hydah encampment about two years ago. The prisoner, along with his associates, es-caped justice on that occasion as there was no direct evidence upon which they could be con-victed. They pleaded that they had "drifted" there.

CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, Nov. 3d.

The Council met at 7 p. m. Present, His Worship the Mayor, and a full Board.

Mr. Hicks, after the minutes had been read, stated that he wished a correction to appear in the Colonist newspaper to the effect that Mr. Lewis was the first Councillor to go outside at the abrupt termination of the previous meeting. COMMUNICATIONS.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A communication, received from the Colonial Secretary in reply to the application of the Council for permission to make certain alterations in the Police Barracks, to make them more suitable for their occupation, was read:

It accorded full permission to make said alterations, and for the Council to use the building so far as their occupation does not conflict with the tions, and for the Council to use the building so for as their occupation does not conflict with the legitimate uses of the premises; said occupation also to be regarded as temporary. Mr. Hewis suggested that a committee be ap-pointed to decide upon the necessary alterations. Mr. Hicks moved that the communication be placed on the file. He was opposed on the score of economy to laying out money in improvements. Mr. Copland said he chould oppose laying out money for the purpose.

Mr. Searby differed from the previous speaker.
They had asked permission under sufferance, and their application had received a proper reply.
Mr. Lewis moved as an amendment that a committee of three be appointed to decide upon the

After some discussion, this amendment was carried. Messrs. Lewis, Stronach, and Reid were carried. Messrs. Lewis, Stronach, and ited were appointed. A second communication from the Colonial Secretary was read, stating that in compliance with the request of the Council he had forwarded three copies of each Act relating to the City of Victoria.

On the suggestion of Mr. Copland, the Town Clerk was directed to apply for five more copies of each.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Scarby proposed that in view of the approaching celebration on the occasion of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales' attaining his majority, a petition from the Council be presented to His Excellency the Governor, praying him to extend his elemency toward such of the criminals confined for punishment in the gaol as are deserving, in the opinion of the authorities, of a free pardon. The resolution and petition, drafted by the mover, were carried unanimously; and Messrs Reid and Hicks were appointed to wait upon His Excellence.

Mr. Hicks' resolutions relative to the Town Site, etc., then came under discussion.

Mr. Copland moved that they be adopted, and passed to Committee to draft a petition to the Duke of Newcastie, drawing his attention to the subtice!

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

Monday, Nov. 3d, 1862.

Monday, Nov. 3d, 1882.

House met at 3:35 p. m. Present—The Speaker and Messra. Tolmie, Southgate, Trimble, Coeker, Cary and Franklin.

The Bill to prohibit Sunday Trading came on for accound reading.

Mr. Coeker said the Bill did not provide enough exceptions, and moved as an amendment that the words "batchers and bakers until 10 a. m." be introduced in the clause excepting vendors of milk, and restaurant and hotel keepers.

Mr. Southgate wished brewers and men employed at the gas works also to be excepted.

Mr. Cary thought the bill wholly unsuitable. It would be a most arbitrary law. Every small boy who chopped firewood on a Sunday, might be hauled up and fined £5. He thought society in this colony was not prepared for such a measure. These things would best regulate themselves.

Mr. Southgate pointed out the obstruction that would be caused on the arrival of the mail steamer. Mr. Tolmie thought that some bill of the kind was required.

Mr. Tolime thought that some bill of the kind was required.

Mr. Cary said the bill before them was very defective, and moved that it be read again at six months' interval.

Mr. Tolime had conversed with many of the tradesmen of Victoria upon the subject, and had found that nine-tenths of them were favorable to some law of the kind being enacted. A small proportion of the class keeping their stores open, places those who observed the Sabbath as a day of rest at such a manifest disadvantage, that they would be glad of the protection that would be afforded them by the passage of such an Act. He Jewish persuasion on this subject, and ascertained that they were for the most part desirous of legislation on the matter.

FREEZING BOLLING WATER -The Forks of Quesnelle must be a cold place in winter.

To Victoria, V. I., for the month ending October

31st, 1862. On the 11th, 12th and 13th of January last, it was so intensely cold that the mercury was frozen like a rock in the bulb of the thermometer. But that was a common test of temperature. Jack Frost gave another illustration of his freezing qualities to a storekeeper who wintered there last winter. One day a blazing fire was doing its best to nen-Assaying Gold in Victoria.-We had it was so intensely cold that the mercury was day a blazing fire was doing its best to nen-tralize the cold, when a teakettle filled with water was put on to boil, but before the fire could exercise any effect on the bottom of the water, the top of it was frozen over with a thin skin of ice!! Tolerably cold, ain't it?

SCARCITY OF LUMBER IN VICTORIA.—Such is the searcity of Lumber in this city at present, Expr that a number of builders have been forced to suspend operations for want of material. The price of the article has also kept pace with the scarcity, ordinary lumber being now worth $22 50@$24 per thousand. The cause of the small supply in this market is accounted for by the fact that the various lumbering esor by the fact that the various lumbering establishments on the Sound are unable to fill the orders of the numerous vessels loading for foreign ports, and consequently do not care to attend to the smaller craft on which we describe the consequence of the conse peud for a supply.

VICTORIA THEATRE.—The attendance and evening. Owing to the press of news we are unable to give an extended notice. To-night Mr. John Wood will appear as Billy Lackaday, in the comedy of "Sweethearts and Wives." Miss Lalu Sweet and Miss Belle Divine will also take part in the play and sing songs.

To Lyrron, B. C., DIRECT .- A large canoe named the Union, left Little's wharf the other day, for Lytton, B. C., carrying about four tons of provisions, feed, etc. The owner was con- making haste lest the river should freeze up before he reached his destination.

We are in receipt of the first number of this new monthly periodical, published at San Francisco by Greely, Dagleish, and Warren, and edited by Robert F. Greely, formerly connected with the literary press of New York and favorably known in California. Literature, history, science, manufactures, arts, commerce, agriculture and laws of the Pacific coast, are the subjects to be dealt with in its pages; and if one were to judge of the future by the first number, one would say that the West Coast need not depend upon Eastern publishers for good readable periodicals. Each number of the Review is to be graced with an original plate. The first one is a capital portrait of the late James Donahue, so well known in San Francisco in connection with the Gas Company. The selections for the Review, embracing as they do the geography, history, mineral and commercial phases of these countries from north to south, are made with admirable taste, and are such as render it most interesting to people living on this coast. Under the head of Historical Recreations we find an interesting account of the early discoveries of the Northwest Coast, embracing matter of the greatest interest to us who are living on it. These, with a number of articles of general interest, make the periodical worthy of the attention and patronage of all who are fond of good reading. VISITORS BY THE "SHUBBICK."-The U. S.

evenue cutter Shubrick, which arrived last night from Steilacoom, has been thoroughly repaired and re-painted, and is now a perfect repaired and re-painted, and is now a perfect picture of neatness and beauty. Through the courtesy of Capt Pease and the officers of the cutter a small party of laddes and gentlemen from across the Sound have availed them-selves of the opportunity to visit Victoria. Among them are Capt. Bachelder and lady, Mrs. Graves, Major Winston, U. S. A., and Mr. Conklin. We wish the party a pleasant excursion.

TEMPERANCE MEETING .- The new Temperance Society held a meeting last night in the ance Society held a meeting last hight in the Methodist Church, and had a large attendance. The Hon. Malcolm Cameron addressed the audience in a very cloquent and impressive speech, and was followed by Rev. About twenty names were added to the list of ninety members obtained at the last meeting.

LARGE IMPORTATION OF LUMBER. - The barque Ionia arrived vesterday morning from Utsalady, W. T., with 162,000 feet of lumber consigned to Mr. Wm. Cocker. The schr. Rebecca also arrived yesterday from Port Madison, with 40,000 feet of lumber and 20,000 shingles to Mr. Sayward.

ECCENTRICITIES .- The eccentricities of Lord Brougham in the House of Lords, which have occasioned much amusement in that angust chamber, more especially to the strangers and ladies seated in the little pens on either side of the bar, arrived at their culminating point in the bar, arrived at their culminating point in the following incident. The noble and learned lord addressed a question to Earl Granville in reference to the establishment of a department of public justice. While Lord Brougham was putting the question, Lord Monteagle passed in front of him, and stopped for a few moments to speak to a noble lord sitting at the end of one of the ottomans on the floor. To pass between a speaker and the person towards whom he may be addressing his observations is a breach of etiquette always Tanklin in the Chair.

Several clauses passed without, and others with slight amendment.

Mr. Helmeken proposed to introduce a clause to enable property holders to pay one, two, or three year's tax in advance at the rate of the current assessment, the same to be applied by the commissioners to the improvement of the roads.

Several members spoke in disapproval of the motion, and on being put it was negatived by the motion, and on being put it was negatived by the commissioners to the improvement of the roads.

We understand the Agent of the Royal Mail Packet Company will be happy to afferd an information in his power to passengers by the Company's boats, as to the mines of British Columbia, or other general local information, by applying at the office of the agency, at Macdonald & Co.'s, Bankers, Yates street. VICTORIANS should test the merits of Dr.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters are the safest of all stimulants. Let the mine who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter's Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard Sold by Druggists and dealers everywhere. oc20 1m BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, AND ULCERS.—The treatment erroneously pursued in these cases, is to drive the disease inwards, thus making matters far worse than by allowing it to take its natural course, as it only breaks out elsewhere with an aspect ten times more dreadful than before. Holloway's celebrated Ointment and Pills, however, act in conjunction, the one internally and the other externally, and by the conjunction of these two inestimable specifies, all descriptions of external diseases are specifily and rapidly removed, even when all other means fail.

The essence of these diseases lie in the blood, which has, floating through each vessel, the pain-giving poison, which irritates and indame every tissue it comes in contact with and produces the hot, swollen, clastic enlargement about the joints so characteristic of gouty diseases. The philosophy of cure consists in overcoming this deprayity in the blood, which is rapidly purified by the use of the Pills. The Olintent, when rubbed upon the skin, penetrates the system through the pores, acts in unison with the Pills, and soon effects a cure.
